Rev. 9/2014
Minor in East Asian Studies

Admission to the minor must be declared no later than the second semester of the junior year; after the start of the seventh semester will be by petition only. Students should prepare a coherent research statement to attach to the application.

A minor in East Asian Studies may be achieved by meeting these requirements:

1. Complete 18 credits of course work, typically five courses. One of the East Asian Intro Courses (ASIAN 2211, ASIAN 2212, or ASIAN 2218) is required.

2. Students normally take courses in East Asian Studies (China, Japan, Korea) from those listed under Asian Studies or its cross-listings. East Asian-related courses taught outside this department with relevant East Asian content may also count, pending approval by the Director of Undergraduate Studies (DUS). Non-language courses must be selected at the 2200-level or above.

3. The following courses may also count towards the minor: two courses in an East Asian language at the 1100-level or above and East Asian graduate courses. Language study is strongly encouraged.

4. Up to 8 credits may be awarded for approved courses taken through Cornell Abroad in East Asia, in consultation with the DUS. Such courses may include summer study.

5. A minimum grade of B must be received for all courses counted towards the minor. S/U courses are ineligible.

6. An exit statement must be submitted to the advisor and the DUS indicating what core intellectual interests were served in work done for the minor and how those reflect a coherent learning agenda.

Those enrolled in the East Asian Studies Minor are considered members of the East Asia Program and are encouraged to participate in all program activities.

To apply, select an advisor from the East Asia Program faculty for consultation on courses of study. A list of eligible faculty is available in the Asian Studies Department Office. Additionally, schedule an appointment with the Director of Undergraduate Studies, Professor Jane-Marie Law, at 343 Rockefeller Hall (asianstudiesdus@cornell.edu). Bring the completed form to the appointment along with a copy of your current Cornell transcript. Informal transcripts are accepted.

Once approved, return the form to the Asian Studies Department Office, 350 Rockefeller Hall.
